

Still don't know which track to take? Here's help!

Review the statements for each track and select the track with two or three statements that best represents you. Couples can split up to attend both tracks.

- I don't know my options as it relates to managing my woodlands.
- I am not sure of the services and assistance available to help me manage my woodlands.
- I am fairly new to woodland ownership.

Consider registering for the Green Track.

- I have identified objectives for my woodlands and have a management plan.
- I have worked with forestry and other natural resource professionals in managing my woodlands.
- I have owned my woodlands for some time and am looking to become more active in its management.

Consider registering for the Gold Track.

KY Woodland Owners

2019 Short Course

Kentucky's woodland owners own their properties for a wide variety of reasons. With proper planning and the right assistance, interests such as timber production, wildlife, and recreational opportunities can complement one another. Learn how at the 2019 Kentucky Woodland Owners Short Course (WOSC)! Local planning committees developed each regional program which includes two programming tracks featuring both indoor and outdoor presentations including a visit to a nearby woodland. Each track features forestry, wildlife, and natural resource professionals from across Kentucky covering a wide variety of topics—there is sure to be something for everyone! Individuals as well as couples are encouraged to attend the regional event nearest their woodland property. Register now because space is limited.
