Fiber Supply Intern

Company Overview
International Paper (NYSE: IP) is a global leader in packaging and paper with manufacturing operations in North America, Europe, Latin America, Russia, India and North Africa. IP produces corrugated packaging products that protect and promote goods; pulp for diapers, tissue and other personal hygiene products that promote health and wellness and papers that facilitate education and communication. Headquartered in Memphis, Tenn., the company employs approximately 52,000 people and is strategically located in more than 24 countries serving customers worldwide. IP net sales for 2016 were $22 billion. For more information about International Paper, its products and global citizenship efforts, visit internationalpaper.com.

For over 120 years International Paper has been dedicated to improving lives by using renewable resources to make recyclable products people depend on every day. As a global company our business provides the economic basis for many millions of forested acres around the world. International Paper works to ensure that these forests are managed responsibly so that they can thrive for generations to come.

Position Overview
International Paper is seeking qualified candidates for Fiber Supply Intern positions. These positions are designed to provide exposure and experience to the fiber supply chain which provides raw materials to International Paper pulp and paper mills. Intern roles are short-term assignments, typically three months in duration.

Job Description & Responsibilities
This position reports to the facility Fiber Supply Manager or Fiber Specialist and interacts with the local work team. Activities are split between the field, mill, and office, and may include any or all of the following:

- Timber Security compliance
- Environmental and BMP inspections
- Fiber Quality assessments
- Wood cost data analysis
- Supplier relations
- Wood receipts and inventory tracking
- Scale house duties
- Finance summary reporting
- Special projects

Qualifications: Candidates should have successfully completed their sophomore or junior year in pursuit of a degree in Forestry, Pulp & Paper Science, Engineering, Business, Supply Chain Logistics or related field. Candidate must have demonstrated leadership abilities as well as proficiency in analytical and communication skills. Minimum GPA 3.0 (4.0 scale).

Important Competencies: Self Starter as demonstrated by scholastic achievement or involvement in campus activities, clubs, student government, etc. Problem Solving, Customer Focus, Action Oriented, Functional/Technical Skills, Timely Decision Making, Integrity and Trust, Drive for Results

Location
Any International Paper manufacturing facility across the US south from Virginia to Oklahoma.

If interested, please apply through your university career services center.

INTERNATIONAL PAPER IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER M/F/D/V